<sup>1</sup>Individual dues and subscriptions paid to BEMS are not deductible as charitable contributions for U.S. income tax purposes, although they may be deductible as professional or business expenses. It is recommended that you consult your tax advisor regarding these matters.

<sup>2</sup>The Bioelectromagnetics Society and the European Bioelectromagnetics Association are pleased to offer their members the opportunity to renew membership dues for both societies with a single payment which can be sent to either association. Your payment may be sent to BEMS in US dollars, or to EBEA in Euros. If you are applying to EBEA through BEMS, your dues will be forwarded to EBEA and they will provide further information on their requirements to fulfill their application process. Emeritus and student memberships must be approved by each society.

<sup>3</sup>To assure timely processing of journal subscriptions and avoid an interruption in print journal delivery, please remit payment no later than November 30th.

<sup>4</sup>The Bioelectromagnetics Society has set up a Memorial Fund to honor deceased members through awards, invited lectures, and other forms of recognition. You may choose to designate the deceased member(s) you would like to honor with your contribution. The Memorial Fund Committee allocates memorial funds and determines the form of memorials. Where awards are involved, the selection of award recipients remains the sole responsibility of the Awards Committee.
